

Barbara Horton

CLD, FIALD | SENIOR PRINCIPAL

“Light has the seemingly magical power to transform objects into environments and environments into experiences.”

About Barbara

With over 40 years of experience, Barbara captures light with a special brilliance for designing solutions to meet challenging requirements. Barbara's strength arises from her broad interest in the arts and its affect on people. Combined with her knowledge of technical advances in lighting, Barbara creates powerful solutions to meet client goals. Barbara inspires HLB's viewpoint to create a lighting practice that offers a visionary perspective with a pragmatic approach to every design. As CEO, Barbara oversees the firm's legacy with an emphasis on creating a culture that is highly driven, curious, motivated for growth and profitability, balances the quality of life and work and is poised to lead the lighting industry.

Barbara is one of HLB's Senior Design Principals and Practice Leaders in urban lighting and healthcare. Barbara's portfolio also includes a well-rounded expertise in notable lighting projects for corporate, academic, recreation, hospitality/retail and performing arts among others..
